Predominantly sweet or suffocated by its long rest in oak barrels. Here there is no sugar, artificial colours or any other aggregates. Agave notes are present and intense. It is full of complexity and character from the field and its terroir.

A subtle flash of chocolate appears at depth. Notes cooked bananas and a fine blend of nuts, almonds and roasted coffee frame his intense personality. Marriage of different attached with a minimum of 30 months in French oak barrels, its end is slightly dry and prolonged.
