Latitud 34° is a family produced easy drinking wine range from Mendoza. The family have been making wines for 3 generations in Mendoza.

The grapes are hand harvested from their vineyards on the 34th latitude, at altitude in the mountain vineyards of Mendoza. They are then sorted by hand again to ensure only the fully ripe, clean grapes go into the wines. They are then fermented in a state-of-the-art winery, also in Mendoza, allowing the wine maker to control the temperatures and keep the freshness of the wines.

Grape Varieties: 100% Cabernet Sauvignon.

Tasting Notes: A fantastic cabernet, black vibrant fruit flavours and cinnamon spice on the nose. Great flavour on the palate of blackcurrants and baked plums, balanced well with medium acidity and soft tannins.

Sugar Level: 2.1g/l

Closure: Screw Cap
