Georges Michel is situated in the 'Golden Mile' which denotes the central route of the Rapaura area, renowned for the production of the best flavored fruit of the Marlborough wine region.

The vineyards, totaling 35 hectares, are 100% winery-owned and currently produce 250 tonnes of fruit annually. They are situated in two blocks, both on the Golden Mile, in the prime Marlborough Terrior and are managed under the watchful eye of our viticulture consultant Daniel Le Brun. Since their very first release, Georges Michel's wines have been awarded numerous national and international Awards including Top Gold Awards in the USA, Asia, Europe and Australia.

Grape Varieties: 100% Pinot Noir.

Farming Practices: Sustainable

Tasting Note: Made entirely from Pinot Noir, the grapes were selected and pressed specifically for this Rosé.

Echoing rose petals the colour is a delicate, vibrant pink. The fresh, supple palate reveals ripe summer berries, and is lively, rounded and finely balanced.

The perfect accompaniment to all aspects of the summer lifestyle. Serve lightly chilled.

Awards: 83 points, 3 stars – Bob Campbell – Master of Wine

Sugar Level: 3.8g/l

Closure: Screw Cap
