Renowned Douro winemakers, Jorge Alves and Celso Peirera were looking for the perfect terroir to express Douro's full character. For several years they researched and ran detailed micro-trials in 10 different sites of the Cimo Corgo sub-region and Tua River sector of the Douro Superior. In 1999, they released their first wines which rapidly won international recognition.

The grapes come from vines growing on granitic soils at 600 meters altitude on the plateau of Alijó.

The wine is matured in 500 litre French oak barrels for a year before bottling.

Grape: Gouverio, Viosinho

Tasting Notes: Powerful rich white overflowing with flavours of honeyed pear and greengage, baking spices and a fine, mineral thread holding everything together on the long finish. An outstanding white which will benefit from decanting.

Food Match: Roast chicken, turbot and mushroom risotto.

An alternative to: Top-level Viognier and Chardonnay.

Closure: Natural Cork

Farming Practices: Contains Sulfites
