In the 1960's, Jean Paul Mett  used to help his neighbour produce eaux de vie. This started his passion and motivated him to learn the craft and later, he opened his own distillery. Keeping to traditional methods, Jean Paul Mett  first produced classical eaux de vie like mirabelle plum and raspberry. He quickly expanded the range by introducing unique eaux de vie like flowers, berries and truffle.

He took his godson Philippe Traber under his wing in the mid-1980's and passed on his passion, knowledge and secrets and who eventually took over on Jean Paul's retirement in 1997. The distillery is located in Ribeauville and is managed by Philippe and Nathalie Traber.

Tasting Notes: A traditionally styled grape eau de vie from French distillers mette, best served in a tasting glass to get the full benefit of its powerful aromas and intense but delicate flavour profile.
