The villages of Verrières and Ambleville are two exceptional communes within the heart of the Grande Champagne area of Cognac, in an area known as the 'Golden Belt', which has been home to François Voyer for more than 5 generations.

It is here that the Voyer family have distilled their wines since 1870, producing smooth, elegant and haunting Cognacs from an exceptional terroir in an exceptional region. They create their Cognacs the way they cultivate their vines; with great passion.

François Voyer is above all a family story and their care for quality starts in the vineyards and its 28 hectares of Ugni Blanc, cultivated on the chalky soils of the region. They offer a wide range of aromatic expressions to suit every palate from beginner to connoisseur.

Tasting Note: Lovely tobacco and cedarwood on the nose with dried flowers. Spicy yet mellow on the palate with great length.

Awards: IWSC - Silver 2017 in Cognac.
