Cantine Provima is one of the oldest wineries in the fast rising Matelica region of the Marche, having produced wines since 1932. This is a small, high-quality co-operative consisting of 180 vinegrowers across 120 hectares of vineyards. Only one-tenth the size of the famous Jesi appellation, Matelica is located inland and benefits of a unique north-south exposure.

Vineyards can be found in the valley where the surrounding mountains counter any sea breezes. Vines benefit from a clay-limestone soil which contributes more body to the wines than commonly found in Jesi.

The Jana Marche Rosso is an unoaked blend of 70% Sangiovese and 30% Merlot. The vineyards are under organic conversion. This is a medium-weight, fresh, juicy red bursting with flavours of wild cherry and blackberry. A great everyday wine to drink with pizza and pasta.
