This wine is owned and produced by the Picard family, as part of a consortium of five family owned winemaking houses in the Loire, Burgundy and the Rhone Valley.

La Pinède takes its name from the regional dialect in the southern Rhône and is the word for the pine cones that can be found on trees throughout the region.

Grape Varieties: 70% Grenache, 10% Syrah, 20% Mouvedre.

Tasting Notes: With a beautiful, deep black-ruby colour, a nose of fruit compote and wild strawberries, this wine has good weight in the mouth and a fresh and fruity finish.

Sugar Level: 2.0g/l

Closure: Screw Cap
