VII Hills Italian dry gin is made in Moncalieri (near Torino), by Vergnano family: the masters distiller craft VII Hills with the same traditional manners as hundreds of years ago.

VII Hills Italian Dry Gin is naturally flavoured with ancient ingredients carefully selected by the Master Distiller from the seven hills.

Tasting Notes: Italian juniper is blended with rosehip, celery, artichoke, blood orange, pomegranate and roman chamomile and distilled using a vacuum pot still, which maintains the delicate flavours stored within the botanicals, resulting in an intense and more rounded-out Roman taste and aroma.
