Soave classico is produced in the hills of the classico area north east of Verona. The Soave Blend refers to the combination of Garganega and Trebbiano di Soave (or Verdicchio) that make up Soave DOC wines, arguably one of Italy's most famous white wines.

This crisp and fruity white wine, made mostly in the Venetian hills near Verona, is now enjoyed around the world, offering a simple and refreshing wine experience.

Grape Varieties: 90%

Garganega and 10% Trebbiano di Soave.

Tasting Notes: A soft pressing of the grapes followed by temperature controlled must fermentation produces a pale-straw coloured wine, dry, with subtle fruit flavours and a hint of bitter almond on the finish. Ideal paired with light pasta dishes and fish.

Sugar Level: 4g/l

Closure: Synthetic Cork
